3. Most of the students felt there is a gap in proper learning resources. Faculty members shall teachstudents about self-learning and access of online library.
4. Moot Court Competitions and Activities to be given more importance so that the valuable practical experiences can be acquired at the early College years itself.
5. More Internship opportunities to be given and proper time allowed for the students to attend the valuable internship such as Yearly Internships or Internships during vacation.
6. Frequent Legal Aid Camps to be scheduled. Students to be sent for Legal Aid Camps to villages and communities to spread legal awareness to the unprivileged ones.

Each semester, faculty members from the School of Law host module coordinator meetings based on demand. These meetings are aimed at improving the quality of content, pedagogy, learning materials, student success, testing, and extension activities for Theory/Moot Court Practice and Other Curriculum Aspects. Faculty members share their feedback/suggestions on the teaching-learning process, research, and extension activities, and these are debated and discussed during these meetings. Faculty members provide reviews on Theory and Practical Courses in a similar fashion. The required recommendations are submitted to the board of studies for curriculum enhancement.
