Prof.S.P. Thiyagarajan has sought the reason for the reduction of seats for B.Tech. Electronics & Communication Engineering from 570 to 480. The Chair Person replied that the students strength in respect of 1. Aeronautical Engineering 2. Electronics & Communication Engineering 3. Mechanical Engineering branches has been reduced in order to accommodate seats for newly started CSE specialization branches i.e. 1. Computer Science and Engineering (Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning) 2. Computer Science and Engineering (Data Science) 3. Computer Science and Engineering (Cyber Security) with the intake of 60 each without changing the total intake in the reallocation process for which approval has been obtained from AICTE.

Prof S.P Thiyagarajan advised closure of any PG programe for which the intake is less than the threshold number (at least 5 or 6), considering the economic viability while pointing out the student strength of M.Tech. Network Engineering wherein there was only one student admitted. The suggestion of the member was accepted.

50.15 To ratify the recruitment based on the recommendations of the Faculty Selection Committee since the last meeting of the BoM held on September 25,2021.

The list of faculty members recruited on the basis of the recommendations of the Faculty Selection Committee since the last meeting of the BoM held on September 25, 2021 is given in the Appendix H.

H. Faculty Selection Committee

Prof. S.P Thyagarajan pointed out that it has been found that a few of the faculty members are continuing the practice of leaving the Institution every year and it would not be fair and healthy practice. He suggested that the Institution should think in terms of retention of the faculty members by conducting Exit Interview to solve their difficulties by redressing their grievances so that the Institution could avail the continuity of the services of some qualified teachers similar to the practice followed by the Institutions of the Western Countries. He suggested that a futuristic plan for the retention of the qualified faculty members could be worked out at the larger interest of the students and the Institution.

RESOLVED to ratify the recruitment of faculty members appointed based on the recommendations of the Faculty Selection Committee since the last meeting of the BoM held on September 25,2021.

FURTHER RESOLVED to evolve a futuristic plan for retention of qualified faculty members in the interest and progress of the Institution.

50.16 To report and ratify the recommendations of Faculty promotions pertaining to the assessment of qualifications and experience through Career Advancement Scheme(CAS).

The norms of promotions under CAS scheme are (1) Faculty members who possess Ph.D. with 13 years of teaching experience can be promoted as Professors and (2) The faculty members who possess Ph.D with 8 years of teaching experience are eligible for promotion as Associate Professors. The list of faculty members benefited under this CAS scheme is given in the Appendix I.

I. Career Advancement Scheme(CAS)

Prof.S.P.Thyagarajan sought clarifications as to what kind of appraisal mechanism has been followed for promotion of faculty members and raised a query whether the norms of promotions were in conformity with the UGC guidelines. He also pointed out that the promotions should be based not only on experience criteria but also based on the performance indicator and other related parameters. He instituted the need of having a unique appraisal mechanism.

In his reply to the query, Prof.A.T.Ravichandran, Dean (Academics), assured that the promotions are given according to the norms of UGC and the Institution has been conducting faculty appraisal programme every year. A special committee under the chairmanship of the Vice Chancellor would study the progress of the faculty members under specified norms and parameters. The increments are given on the basis of the performance of the faculty members in the faculty appraisal Interviews. He has stated there is a mechanism to appraise the performance of the staff of this institution periodically. Based only on the performance indicator, the faculty members are recommended for promotion under CAS and promotions are not merely based on the years of experience.

RESOLVED ratify the recommendations of Faculty promotions pertaining to the assessment of qualifications and experience through Career Advancement Scheme(CAS).

Similarly Bio Medical Engineering and Media departments have also developed modules and courses. The Feedback analysis from the students was done with the help of the questionnaire to know the response of the students for online classes and the difficulties faced by the students particularly, those from the rural areas with regard to the technical issues were also noticed. Prof.V.Srinivasa Rao presented the Student Feedback Analysis of the Department of CSE in detail.

Prof.S.P.Thiagarajan pointed out that the enrolment for Massive Open Online Courses (MOOC) have been increased tremendously in India after US is dominating the global growth. Currently NPTEL and SWAYAM are the platforms used in India predominantly for offering courses in the area of technical education.

He suggested that Vel Tech should think in terms of uploading e-learning contents on these portals Prof.A.T.Ravichandran replied that setting of a quality sound studio with required equipment and facilities etc., is under consideration and he assured that initiatives would be able to upload e learning contents through such portals successfully, in coming years as suggested by the external member.

B. Items for Consideration and Approval

49.6 To consider and approve the Minutes of the 37th Academic Council Meeting held on July 16, 2021.

The Minutes of the 37th Academic Council Meeting held on July 16, 2021 and the gist of the proceedings of the ACM given by the Dean(Academics) are given in the Appendix D and D1 respectively.

The Dean (Academics) briefed the discussions held on different subjects related to academic affairs especially the approval of credits to NCC, open elective course (10 credits), academic calendar, re-admissions, research activities, intake of students as per AICTE etc. which were in the Minutes of the Academic Council held on July 16,2021.

Prof. Jagadeesh Kumar asked for clarification as why 10 credits out of 165 prescribed for NCC which was too high for an extra curricular course paper. Prof. Dr. E. Kannan explained that the number of credits recommended by the UGC was 24 and the decision to reduce the number of credits from 24 to 10 was taken after a lengthy meeting with the NCC officers at the Zonal Level.

Prof. S.P. Thyagarajan explained that the UGC prescribed certain extra curricular papers like NCC keeping in view that students should be motivated to join NCC and in order to give emphasis, they would have suggested more number of credits and the decision to reduce the number of credits was already decided at the joint meeting of the Institution representatives and NCC officers. He is of the view that 10 credits may be continued.

Prof. S.P. Thyagarajan while speaking on the Ranking, pointed out that it was learnt that the Ranking process was primarily based on the number of Full time Research scholars and the publications. He wanted to know the break of details for Ph.D. full time and Part time Ph.D. scholars for reference. Prof. E. Kannan replied that there are 75 full time Ph.D. scholars and 433 Part time scholars are on roll as of now. The stipend for FT scholars was increased upto the maximum of Rs. 25,000/- per month. Prof. S.P. Thiagarajan suggested that Vel Tech should explore all ways and means to attract more full time scholars for Ph.D as the progress of the Institution largely depends on the research activities and the number of Full time scholars doing research and the number of publications on research activities.

The Chairperson assured that necessary initiatives would be taken to increase the number of the full time Ph.D. scholars for the forthcoming sessions.

F. Concluding

49.17 Any other item with the permission of the Chairperson.

Prof. H.S. Shan sought clarification as to the decrease in the number of students in PG Courses and the economic viability to running the courses. He suggested that the programmes with the lesser number of students may not be closed and the ways and means to how students could be attracted to join these courses by giving some emphasis and concessions in terms of fee etc. should be explored so that we can retain many specialized courses particularly at the PG level.

The Dean(Academics) stated that some of the courses for which the intake was continuously poor in the recent years have been closed and one such course was B.Tech. in Automobile Engineering. As far as the PG programmes are concerned, advertisements are given highlighting facilities such as Lab, TBI, centre of excellence etc. He ensured that necessary initiatives could be taken in this regard.

49.18 To consider and approve the date for holding the next meeting of the BoM.

Curriculum Development and Implementation of Academic reforms

(Curriculum and Teaching & Learning)

The institution has been adopting interdisciplinary programs in the thrust areas of study in the faculties of Engineering Technology, Law, Management, and Arts and Science, expanding them in a gradual manner and it is hoped that the institution can offer interdisciplinary courses more extensively. Focusing on offering market-oriented interdisciplinary programs at all levels under this facet, will be largely helpful to the students to be aware of setting trends and it enables them to build skill sets.

Falling in line with the recommendations of the National Education Policy (NEP), It has been proposed to establish a separate cell to monitor induction of a number of schools in multi-disciplinary in nature and to modify existing schools, especially the school of Basic Sciences, School of Management and Law to make them as a School of Liberal Studies and to frame modalities and guidelines as how to effectively these programs can be with the support of partner institutions, wherever, necessary. There is also a proposal to offer disciplines such as Health Economics, Data Sciences, Bioinformatics, etc. at this Institution under interdisciplinary facet, in the near future.

It is believed that the Pedagogical innovations and curriculum changes will promote more inter-disciplinary learning by using technology, involved in teaching and learning. The Institution is strongly believing that there should be a transit from the customary learning methodologies to more practical learning approaches facilitating experiential learning as it is felt that this is the need of the hour. Technology reforms such as powered classrooms allowing for innovative pedagogical approaches like (i) flipped classrooms, (ii) MOOCs, (iii) Collaborative learning, etc., will be constituted to promote education delivery towards global standards.

Hybrid learning is termed as the combination of online and offline modes of teaching and learning process. The institution is planning to set up more number of Active Learning spaces (ALSs) in the Institution. By virtue of the experience that this institution had during the COVID 19 pandemic, the faculty members have gained adequate knowledge and experience in the conduct of online classes and preparation of course materials, activities connected with the delivery of online lectures, distribution of course materials, uploading them in you tubes etc. The institution has been establishing a well-furnished media studio in the department of media studies with an intention of uploading classic course materials, learning guidelines and principles in the national sites like NTPL and Swayam.

The CDIO (Conceive-Design-Implement-Operate) initiative engineering workspaces, established in the University as first of its kind in India, providing the real industry atmosphere to the students to perform all the duties of professional engineers during the entire programme of their study. The Vel Tech curriculum benchmarked internally with CDIO syllabus version, 2.0 fulfils the graduate attribute of National Board of Accreditation (NBA Tier 1) Washington accord and adheres to the guideline of the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) based flexible curriculum.

The Institution is also re-modeling the curriculum to include components of Research curriculum pattern called Under Graduate Research Opportunities Program (UROP), internships, capstone project or thesis.

The Institution is planning for the Introduction and implementation of short-duration courses of with the duration of less than a year for the working people in pursuit of career growth, by assigning this responsibility to a senior faculty on a standalone basis or in collaboration with industry partners/ international academic institutions.

This institution will go for ABET accreditation for the core engineering programs in its all campuses during the plan period.

The institution has been intensively working out an intensive plan for getting NBA accreditation for all its departments within this plan period and it is also believed that the Institution will get A++ status under NAAC Accreditation.

Vel Tech is planning to establish Centres of Excellence (COE) in areas to improve the quality of research by investing in faculty development, increasing the number of post graduate and doctorate students and extensively building a network of partnerships with leading local and global institutions.

Learning Resources

Institutional library holdings in terms of books, journals, e-resources and other learning materials including technology-aided learning mechanisms which enable students to acquire information, knowledge and skills required for their study programmes are adequate. A recent development in the field due to availability of digital technologies, is in the functioning of the library which has undergone a drastic change. Automation of library using the ILMS, use of e-journals and books, providing remote access to e-resources in the library have become a matter of necessity. Providing for these and other such developments as well as utilizing them well are important indicators of the quality of an academic institution.

Target 1 Emergence as high rated and focused learning institution

1. Development of effective curriculum to cater to the industry needs. In consonance with the New Educational Policy
2. To Focus on Inter disciplinary and Multidisciplinary programs along with industry oriented online courses leading to graduates
3. Increase of students to 15,500 with 5% International students
4. Facilitating industrial internships / Visits for enhancing industry-readiness and employability of students.
5. ABET accreditation for core engineering programmes
5. Introducing new programmes in emerging areas and multi-disciplinary PG programs
6. Improving performance of students in competitive and professional examinations

Extension Activities

Learning activities have a visible element for developing sensitivities towards community issues, gender disparities, social inequity etc. and in inculcating values and commitment to the society. Affiliation and interaction with groups or individuals who have an interest in the activities of the institution and the ability to influence the actions, decisions, policies, practices or goals of the organization lead to mutual benefit to both the parties. The processes and strategies inherent in such activities relevantly sensitize students to the social issues and contexts. Sustainable practices of the institution leading to superior performance results in successful outcomes in terms of generating knowledge useful for the learner as well as the community.

Extension also is the aspect of education which emphasizes community services. These are often integrated with curricula as extended opportunities, intended to help, serve, reflect and learn. The curriculum-extension interface has an educational value, especially in rural India.

- Student Exchange

Globalization and digitisation bring international knowledge and education to our doorstep. With the proverbial press of a button, our students have access to lectures from all corners of the globe. The international mobility of students and staff has grown immensely in recent decades. Students from all over the world study in Utrecht and international staff are part of our university community. Their knowledge and cultural backgrounds enrich our education and research and their different perspectives add value to the academic debate.

By systematically organizing these activities in a well-planned manner, it is hoped that in the next 5 years, Vel Tech would have more than 170 faculty members from international institutions apart from 5% of the international student strength.

The targets of the Institution under the Strategic Plan 2021-26 are summed up as detailed below:

Target -4: Expansion of international relations

1. Frequent conduct of study abroad programs, internships at Universities / organizations internationally.
2. Attracting more international students
3. To facilitate interface /internships /projects and inviting foreign faculty/experts for long/short term assignments
4. Enhancing Institute collaborations with international institutions
5. Preparing for international level accreditation and ranking
6. Faculty exchange and student exchange
7. Masters Progression, Summer program
8. Joint research publication with international experts

Progress in International relations would be tracked on the following parameters.
